R&R In Concert...

Y-Day Events Set

by Janis A. Roldseth
Universe Staff Writer

Planning for this year's Y-Day is the New York Rock and Roll Ensemble.

A modern new sound, the R&R have appeared on the 16 Bell Telephone Special, have also appeared on the Ed Bernstein show.

Brandenburg, "a modern theme which is 'Brandenburg Rites,'" has recently been chosen by the ensemble.

Scheduled for May 9 in the Fieldhouse, tickets for the show go on sale Monday at 7 in the Third Floor, Wilkinson Center box office.

Prices are $1 for bleachers and $2 for green seats.

Seating may be obtained by between 8 and 11 a.m. at the Third Floor box office. One may pick up the block for cash.

The Third and Fourth Stakes are nominated to whitewash the Y this year, according to Dwight Inouye, Y-Day chairman.

Whitewashing the Y isn't the only work activity slated for May 10. Others include cleaning up the grounds of the Provo ward chapel, and picking up litter around Provo, Orem and Springville.

After the morning has been spent cleaning up, lunch will be served at Kiwanis Park. Each ward must pick up tickets for its members from the Y-Day office, 119 Wilkinson Center, before May 9.

'Y' Hosts Lamanites

BYU hosts 500 high school and college Lamanite students today and Saturday in the annual Lamanite LDS Youth Conference.

An assembly featuring Elder Spencer W. Kimball of the Council of the Twelve, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, opens the events at 8 a.m. today in the Varsity Theater, Wilkinson Center.

A speech and talent contest will be held in 394, 396 and 321 Wilkinson Center from 10 a.m. to noon today.

Elder LeGrand Richards of the Council of the Twelve and Elder A. Theodore Tuttle of the First Council of the Seventy will address participants at a banquet today at 6 p.m. in the Wilkinson Center East Ballroom.

Class Offices

There was a foul-up in today's primary elections for class officers. The election will be held today at the Wilkinson Center, Deseret Center, Reuben Clark Library, the Y Bldg. and the Eyring Center.

Fireside Sunday

Neal A. Maxwell, executive vice president of the University of Utah, is the featured speaker at the Fireside Sunday scheduled for Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Maxwell, who holds a B.A. and M.A. in political science from the U. of U., has received numerous awards in his educational career, including the "Liberty Bell Award" in 1967 from the Utah State Bar Association, and the "Favorite Professor Award" in 1966 from the Delta Gamma sorority.

He served as president of Kappa Tau Alpha, honorary journalism society in 1958-59, and is a member of Phi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary society and Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity.

The administrator has served as chairman of a Committee to Study Legislative Organization and Function in 1966, and in 1968 was chairman of the Constitutional Study Committee, designed to pursue the task of constitutional revision.

CAP Day Features 'A Hand Up'

"A Hand Up—Not A Hand Out" is the theme of the winning poster by one of two BYU contest winners for the Community Action Program (CAP), a federally sponsored anti-poverty program located in Provo.

Joani Farnsworth, the poster contest winner from Cedar City, Utah, made her poster in preparation for today's CAP Day. Her poster has been reproduced and placed in store windows throughout the county and on bulletin boards around campus.

CAP essay contest winner is John

Tanner, a freshman from South Pasadena, Calif. Mr. Tanner's essay, based on a statement by John D. Rockefeller, appears in today's UNIVERSE.

Some of the activities of today's Community Action Day are: 12:15 p.m. luncheon at Eldred Center at which Senator Moss will speak; a presentation of awards to outstanding Utah County citizens and CAP recipients, and at 2 p.m. the presentation of the awards to the two BYU contest winners; a public reception from 2:30 to 4 p.m. with Senator Moss and other dignitaries present; and exhibits, films, and slides on the CAP program until 5 p.m.

Entries for the Brotherhood Week Art and Literature contest sponsored by the Sophomore Class must be submitted to the Sophomore Class office by Wednesday, May 7.

The Sophomore Class office is located at Room 424 of the student government offices, fourth floor, Wilkinson Center.

Journalists Plan Saturday Confab

"The Challenge of Change" is the theme of a communications seminar at the University of Utah Saturday.

The seminar, sponsored by the Intermountain Association of Industrial Editors, the University of Utah Journalism Dept., and the Utah Headliners Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, will begin with registration at 9 a.m. in the University of Utah Union Building and will cost $2.50 for students and $5 for others.

Speakers will be Phil L. Hansen, former Utah attorney general; Hays Gorey, chief political correspondent for Time Magazine's Washington bureau; and J. Lester Blocker, assistant vice president and public affairs officer for First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co. in Philadelphia.

Hansen will open the seminar 9:45 a.m. in the University of Utah Union Building with a speech titled "Why Resist Change?"

Gorey, discussing "Changing the Guard," will be the speaker at luncheon, also held in the Union Building. He is the author of recent Time Magazine cover story on Ethel Kennedy.

For WAC Lead...

BYU Battles Utah

By Bob Oakley
 Universe Sports Writer

Salt Lake City will be the scene of the opening game of a three game series between the University of Utah and BYU's baseball squad. An 8 p.m. night game at Derks Field will light the two WAC front runners going at it head to head. One team will have to come away with the outright lead in the WAC after this series.

Dick Hardy will probably be on the hill for Utah. Hardy was hit hard by the Cougars in the opener of the last series with Utah.

Richard Zinniger will be the starter for BYU. Zin, with a fine 9-0 record and respectable ERA of 2.18 in 11 games, has given up only 50 hits in 66 innings while chalking up 86 strikeouts. Zin's no slouch with the bat either—he is currently hitting at a .280 clip.

Dane Long and Mike Folster may see more action this weekend after a good series with Weber. Long went 6-8 and raised his average .43 points to .278, while Folster upped his average four points to .379. Terry Sanford, in his last five games, has raised his average a fantastic 136 points from .279 to a current .365.

The Cougars are carrying a .290 team batting average in into the series with the lineup following hitting an average of around .324. Fairbanks .359
 LF .379
 Folster 3B .250
 CF .250
 Howard 1B .413
 Knosp 2B .275
 Ticker C .298
 Sanford RF .365
 Berge SS .293
 Zinniger P (9-0) .280

Marv Maxwell will probably see action Saturday against Utah right-handers. Marv has been rapping the ball for an average of .408.

Ken Crosby, with a 4-2 record and an ERA of 3.18 has been given the mound assignment for one game of the twin bill on Saturday in Provo beginning at 1 p.m. The other starter is still a tossup and could be almost anyone on the staff.

Arizona Wildcat Netters Meet Pearce Power

day the Cougars hosted State. The Sun Devil previously had been defeated for Saturday.

na, BYU and Utah are to battle for the WAC championship in Tempe, Arizona.

However, the Cougars have downed Utah twice, 5-4 in Provo, and 6-3 Wednesday in Salt Lake City, to increase their dual-match record to 10-2.

BYU also won the Ojai Tournament in California last weekend.

Zdravko Minckov and Larry Hall will be playing the number one and two singles, with Don Lowe, Patrick Landau, Eric Baer and Chuck Pate likely drawing the other singles assignments.

Y To Host Wild West

The West will come alive at BYU this weekend when the Cougars rodeo team is joined by nine other schools for 19th annual western extravaganza in the Y's new rodeo arena.

Top college teams and individual performers from the Rocky Mountain-Southwest will test some of the finest stock in the area.

This year's rodeo at BYU will be staged in three parts. The opening is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday night, and the Saturday sessions will be held at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. with the champions to be crowned at the conclusion of the final event that night.

One of the fastest growing of the intercollegiate sports, the college rodeo features practically all of the events found in the usual western show. The BYU program this weekend will include bareback bronc riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, saddle bronc riding, bulldogging, bull riding, goat tying and other events.

Besides host school BYU, the participating teams will be Idaho State, Boise State, Ricks College, Utah State, Weber State, Utah, Dixie College, Utah Tech (Provo) and College of Eastern Utah.

Softball

Semi-finalists in the All-School Softball Tournament are the Blorts, the CAS Ollies, 44th Ward, and the 53rd Ward. Saturday at noon the Blorts will play the 44th Ward on NW Helaman Halls field. 53rd Ward battles CAS at the same time on the SW field.

Blaisdell Ineligible

By Bob Hudson
Universe Sports Writer

Jim Blaisdell, last year's Mr. Everything and this year's track team co-captain, was dealt a crushing blow this past week when he discovered that he will not be eligible for the NCAA Championship meet in June.

He has met the quality standard in the long jump and member of both qualifying teams. Since he is ineligible, quarters must require another eligible man running the place.

Although Jim is ineligible for championship meet in Knoxville he is eligible to compete in weekend's Beehive Invitational, the Fresno Relays, and the title meet.

SATURDAY NIGHT MEET
The Beehive Invitational, held Saturday night at 8 p.m., include all four major schools, Idaho State University and the University of Montana. Although the Cougars have little competition for team title, there should be no good individual events.

Ralph Mann, the national intermediate hurdler, will not be at his best to beat ISU's Wharton, possibly the second in the country.

Other top events will be discussed, in which Olympian L. Silvester will compete untrained the 100, and both relay events.

Lamanites To Confer

BYU will host the all-LDS Lamanite Youth Conference, with headquarters in the Wilkinson Center, Friday and Saturday.

Approximately 500 participants are expected, coming from as far north as Canada and as far east as Georgia.

Elder Spencer W. Kimball, chairman of the Lamanite Correlation Committee, is scheduled as conference keynote speaker. He will talk in the Varsity Theater at 8:15 a.m. Friday.

Speakers in the Wilkinson Center East Ballroom at 7:30 p.m. Friday will be Elder LeGrand Richards of the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and Theodore A. Tuttle, Assistant to the Council of the Twelve.

"From the Eagle's Bed," a Lamanite pageant, will be performed at 9:15 a.m. Saturday in the Provo High School Auditorium. Tickets, which cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for those under 18, can be purchased at the door.

USAF Testing

Officer qualifying tests for all people interested in flying as a USAF navigator or pilot will be held early in May.

Testing for pilots will be 1 p.m., May 8, in 250 Wells ROTC Bldg. 20/20 vision is one of the physical requirements for pilots. Navigator tests will be at 1 p.m., May 13, also in 250 Wells ROTC Bldg. 20/50 vision is a necessity for navigator candidates.

Interested applicants should contact the Aerospace Studies offices.

Dead Week Planned

Academic Dead Week is May 15 to May 21, according to Dean of Students J. Elliot Cameron.

Dean Cameron reminded faculty that during this period no examinations should be given except those which were previously scheduled and announced at the beginning of the semester. All papers—research and term—should be in teachers' hands before this last week, he said. "The Academic Dead Week is specifically for students to have the opportunity for final review, completion of class work, a preparation for the examination period," according to the Dean.

Also in regard to exams, ASBY Vice President of Academics Tom Christofferson said that since the semester was shortened by nine days after it began, the usual one day without classes before the examination period will not be effected this semester.

Christofferson also invited students who felt they had suffered infractions of the Dead Week policy to submit their complaints to the ASBYU Academics Office.

Y Hosts Secretarial Exam

Brigham Young University will serve as an examination center for the 1969 annual Certified Professional Secretary Examination to be administered Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 3, in 215 Jesse Knight Bldg. It was announced by Dr. Max L. Waters, chairman, Business Education Department.

BYU will be one of 111 centers for the two-day examination which approximately 2,100 secretaries will take throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

To date 4,252 have earned the right to use the CPS designation by passing six parts of the examination: personal adjustment and human relations, business law, business administration, secretarial accounting, secretarial skills, and secretarial procedures.

The examination is open to secretaries who meet certain educational requirements in combination with specified years of verified secretarial experience.

Applications for the 1969 examination are now being accepted by the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, 1103 Grand Avenue, Suite 410, Kansas City, Missouri, 64106.

TODAY

Recitals are in the air. For example, today at 4 p.m. in the Madson Recital Hall of the Harris Fine Arts Center, Bruce Palmer and Randy Towery, trumpet students of Newell Dayley, will perform. Then at 7 p.m. in the Madson Recital Hall, Nancy Holt, piano student of Prof. Robert Smith, will play Bartok, Brahms, Beethoven, and Bach.

SATURDAY

A freshman piano student highlights Saturday evening when she performs at 7 p.m. in the Madson Recital Hall. Lu-Ping Wang, a student of Prof. Paul Polle, is studying Music Education and hails from Taipei, Taiwan.

SUNDAY

Sunday features three students of Prof. J.J. Keeler in recital in the Provo Tabernacle at 8:45 p.m. Performers include Ken Noble, a senior from Provo; James Rasmussen, from Wenewick, Wash; and Le Ann Dye from Spring City, Utah.

See what love the Father has given us.—(1 John 3:1). Some people need to know that they are important, that they are worthwhile. We have the capacity to help these people to find themselves—to become aware of their importance in God's good world. Your prayers, your faith in them, the love you pour out on them will help them to hear the voice of God in them saying, "You are my beloved child."

Drama Weekend Features Two

BYU's production of "The Fantasticks" is still playing in the Pandore Drama Theatre of the Harris Fine Arts Center.

Performances start at 8:15 p.m. and will run through Saturday.

Adapted from the play, "The Romantics," by Rostand, Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt produces a winner that played off-Broadway since 1960.

The musical depicts the story of a boy, a girl, a wall and their fathers. Under the direction of Dr. Preston Gledhill, Ron Stevenson, Pam Groo, Norman Birdsall and Jack McLaughlin portray the chief characters.

Finishing Saturday is the premiere of "Pilgrim's Progress." It begins at 8:15 p.m. in the De Jong Concert Hall of the Harris Fine Arts Center. Tickets for all performances are 50 cents with student body card.

Attention All 1969 Graduates

Congratulations on this fine achievement! If you are thinking about automobiles, may we suggest that you don't buy a car unless you can afford one and then BUY ONLY WHAT YOU CAN AFFORD. If you have decided upon an employer and will require transportation, we sincerely believe your best buy is a brand new 1969 Volkswagen because:

1. Financing: A bank loan can be arranged for entire purchase price. First monthly payment due in July.
2. Fun Car: The 1969 VW is the best ever and is a real pleasure to own and drive.
3. Economy: Low original cost, highest resale value, 24,000 mile written warranty, extremely low operating costs.

So please come in, try out a VW, and talk over your car needs.
